Art, It's in the air

It seems that the same stories are going around. Or is it that we notice them when we are involved. The movie Sherlock Holmes is playing at the local theatre. It is also at other play venues. When our board decided to perform Sherlock we just didn't know about the rest of the world. It's a good thing though. For we are in the mix. Therefore: AUDITIONS for Sherlock Holmes will be Monday January 11th and Tuesday January 12th at 7PM.
There are many male roles to fill. There are a few female roles plus a teenage male.
The auditions will take place at Divine Word Church 5505 W Lloyd. We have chosen Laura LaPinske to direct this production. She will have performers read from the script of Sherlock Holmes.
We still could use some tech. People. So come out on Monday or Tuesday.
The production dates are: March 5,6, 12 & 13, 2010.
The performance will be at: Faith United Church
4240 N 78th Street.

THE KING'S RABBITS

Under the creative hand of James Lentz Jr, The King's Rabbits is nor a musical.
The cast has been rehearsing at Divine Word Church. Sandry Wyss has been making trees and bushes for set pieces, Barbara Lynch is busy with costumes.
It is a very talented cast including Amelia Kamholz formerly known as the wardrobe in Beauty and the Beast. Performing the Old woman is Bobby Schmeling. It promises to be a very entertaining production.
