1985-1986 SEASON

NOVEMBER 1985

THE ONE ACTS ARE COMING!! THE ONE ACTS ARE COMING!! And very very very very very very SOON, too. In fact, the Second Annual VPW One Act Play Festival opens this Friday, November 8, at 8:00 PM at the Plank Road School (does anyone still call it the Children's Home?) Theatre. The remaining dates are Saturday, November 9; Friday, November 15; and Saturday, November 16. As we did last year, we are sharing the weekends with the Mini-Theatre. VPW dates are the 8th and the 16th. (Of course, you can figure out when Mini-Theatre performs.) One ticket makes you eligible for TWO evenings of fine entertainment (and those two evenings are your choice). And now a word about VPW's offerings and the people involved. . . .

1) "Unfulfilled Desires" is by Judy Markowski. It is a black comedy and stars David Handrich and Lynn Dombeck. 2) "Our Family Secret" is by John R. Clow III; this show is a warm comedy and features Twen LaBreche, Patrick Murray, and Angie and George Anagnostopoulos (!). 3) "One for the Road" is by Joan Rohr Myers. It is billed as an intellectual comedy and the performers are Anne Marie Cheney and Curt Carpenter. 4) "If You Think You Have a Reservation, You Probably Don't" is by Richard J. Fuchs. This play is a farce and stars Maggie Ley, Kurt Poth, Ted Hertle, Joan Halvorson, David George, Paul Van Haas and Lloyd Dreger.

The entire evening of these four fine one act comedies is being stage managed by Judie Makarewicz; the director is none other than Rick Fuchs. Best wishes to all involved!!

THE REST OF THE SEASON IS COMING!! THE REST OF THE SEASON IS COMING!! Just around the corner and to the left of the New Year 1986 are the final two shows of the VPW's subscription season. This year's musical is "Bells are Ringing" - a show from the '50s which originally starred Judy Holliday and includes the hits "The Party's Over" and "Just in Time." Auditions for this mainstage extravaganza will be scheduled for early January with production dates set for March 14, 15, 21, 22, and 23. Watch for further information. Our comedy, slated for May 9, 10, 16, 17, and 18, is the Americlassic, "Arsenic and Old Lace." Directors are Dave Eggebrecht and Tom Zuehlke, respectively. Keep these two shows in mind should the theatre bug bite and you feel the need to be on (or back) stage!

THE ONE LINERS ARE COMING! THE ONE LINERS ARE COMING! In an effort to beef up our lighting fund coffers - and to give our fans/patrons an opportunity to be creative - each of our productions will feature space in the programs for personal messages. For more info on this, please contact Frank Sander.

YOUR MEMBERSHIP IS GOING!! YOUR MEMBERSHIP IS GOING!! But it won't be gone if you keep an eye on your due-date found on your address label. Dues are only $5 per year. Help VPW stay alive by supporting us and talking us up to your friends and neighbors.
