A MUSICAL OF LAUGHTER, TEARS & DREAMS OF AMERICAN FRONTIER WOMEN

The VPW is proudly producing QUILTERS for your enjoyment this holiday season. The description laughter, tears, and dreams depicts the emotions of this years musical QUILTERS as we transport our audience to the turn of the twentieth century and seven strong pioneer women tell their tales of discovery and loss, sorrow and joy, pain and pride, in creating and overcoming the hardships of the American Western Frontier. Haunting American folk melodies, moving ballad lyrics, and dancing, celebrates the lives of these women. A series of vignettes are represented in the patch work they are quilting as the story is told. The tale, like the quilt, and like America, becomes a total complete picture made of these individual lives.

Introducing the Milwaukee area to QUILTERS for the VPW is our Director (and we are simply thrilled to have this gentleman working with us!!!)
