As May West would say,
"A good man is hard to find."

Director, Laura LaPinske has the major roles cast, but there are a least two male roles available. So if you are interested in our production of Sherlock Holmes, please contact Laura at 414-571-5667. Laura and her assistant director, Larry Beckley have been rehearsing the play at Divine Word Church on Lloyd only a few weeks now. The 5 scene play is a challenge for the stage at Faith United Church, but we have a very creative crew. Our costumer, Molly Dewane, is gathering period pieces while our set Designer, Paul Weir creates the flats. Sandra Wyss will paint a cold looking gas chamber. Wow, sounds scary. But don't worry, Sherlock and Dr Watson will solve the mystery.

Performances are:
March 5, 6, 12 & 13 at 7:30PM
Faith United Church
4240 N 78th Street
Groups of 10 or more have a special rate. Call Rosie for more Information 414-771-7337

The One-Act Festival

Tom Zuehlke and his crew have been reading the One-Act scripts that have come in. They are in the process of choosing the ones to be performed. They have chosen the directors and things are moving right along. Auditions will be March 22nd & 23rd 8PM at Divine Word Church 5505 W Lloyd.

The performances are scheduled for: May 14, 15, 21, 22, 28 & 29. Performances are at the Alchemist Theatre 2569 S Kinnickinnic Ave. For further information check the vpw website.

The King's Rabbits

The first performance of The Kings Rabbits at Nathan Hale was very well received. In fact it was said to be the best performance they have seen. Director James Lentz Jr wrote 6 songs (words & music) for the play. The acting and music was fantastic. We do thank our playwright, Donna Kay Kohls who created characters and the story. It is an old Norwegian tale that Donna crafted into this wonderfully funny play.

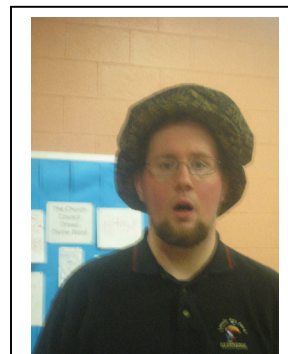

Congratulations to the cast and crew .
