

The Village Playhouse of Wauwatosa

Proudly presents a benefit performance of its 2003 AACTFest entry
A one hour excerpt of

On March 8th, the Village Playhouse will perform its excerpt of The Laramie Project in Platteville, Wisconsin. The show will be competing against ten other Wisconsin community theatres for the privilege of representing the state at the Great Lakes Regional Community Theatre festival which could lead to the chance to perform at the national and international festivals. Come see great theatre and help offset the expenses of representing the Village Playhouse at the state festival.
